

Business and Club/Association Account Opening Checklist

Thank you for considering Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union for your organization's financial needs! This checklist will help us be sure we've got everything needed to open your account¹. Based on the type of your business or club/association, the following documents and information will be needed at account opening.

¹ Membership Eligibility for ALL Business and Club/Association Accounts	Sole Proprietorship	Limited Liability Corporation (LLC)	Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) or General Partnership (GP)	Corporation	Club/ Association
A majority owner or control person is an existing member in good standing OR your organization is an approved Select Employer/Association Group (ask us for details and how to join!) AND the business is located and has Secretary of State documents in Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado, OR a contiguous state.

² Special Requirements for LLC
Operating Agreement, signed and dated	This is the governing document of your LLC, and it must be signed by all members and dated. It is beneficial to have to protect the limited liability aspect of the LLC. Legal counsel and online resources may be able to provide guidance for this document. Meridian Trust does not provide legal services.
³ Special Requirements for Club/Association
Meeting Minutes	Your organization's Board or Secretary should have this documentation, or a special meeting may be needed. Meeting Minutes should include approval to open an account at Meridian Trust, who the officers on the account will be, and who is authorized to conduct business for the organization. This should also include the organization's EIN/SSN for tax reporting.
