

Nominee Application

We are passionate in our commitment to the credit union philosophy and to the Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union mission statement (see above). We serve the membership best when we practice this philosophy. The Nominating Committee is charged by the Board of Directors to find qualified member-applicants that can serve on the Board of Directors. With this in mind, we have established a three step application process to find the best candidate(s) for any expired seat or vacancy.
